

The 28th Andhra Pradesh State Joint Conference of the Indian Public Health Association (IPHA) and the Indian Association of Preventive and Social Medicine (IAPSM)

The 28th Andhra Pradesh State Joint Conference of the Indian Public Health Association (IPHA) and the Indian Association of Preventive and Social Medicine (IAPSM) was recently organized from 1st to 3rd September 2023 by the Department of Community Medicine at the GITAM Institute of Medical Sciences and Research (GIMSR) in Visakhapatnam.

The theme of the conference "SDGs for Better Health: How India is spearheading towards it?" was planned to focus on the Health related goals of Sustainable Development Goals by World Health Organization. The conference witnessed the presence of eminent speakers Dr Sanjay K Rai from AIIMS, New Delhi and past president IPHA, Dr J P Muliyl, Ex principal, CMC, Vellore who delivered the Dr B Ramamurthy Memorial oration and Dr T S R Sai oration respectively. Other experts in the field of public health, who delivered insightful lectures on various subthemes included Dr Ajit Schewale from NCDC, New Delhi, Dr M Anuradha, Senior Director, Regional Airports authority, Dr John Oomen, senior public health expert etc.